To the Reader.

GENTLEMEN,

THE Sale of the Library of the Reverend and Learned Dr. Bernard amongst you, is designed to entertain and also to oblige you, because it contains numbers of Books unusual in all its parts, that very rarely appear, if at any time are to be found in the Bookſellers Shops. For the difficulty of procuring, and expence of getting ſcarce Books, no Perſon can be truly ſenſible of, but he that hath made a Collection for himſelf. His being often beyond the Seas as Agent for other Learned Perſons, and buying for himſelf, gave him an opportunity of purchaſing what was choice and valuable, as will be evident in the peruſal of the Catalogue. The Libri Orientales appear to me to be conſiderable, and his skill in all or moſt of thoſe Languages you find Books printed in, doth ſufficiently manifeſt and evidence his great Learning. His Manuſcripts Oriental, &c. left by him, among which I am informed there are ſome very Antient Copies not printed, are of great value, perhaps not elſewhere to be found. The Libri Impreſſi Collati cum codicib. MSS. & Doctiſſ. Virorum notis illuſtrati, are many of them curiouſly noted by great Men, and Books of general uſe. The whole are above 500 Volumes, deſigned by his Relict to be ſold at a moderate Price altogether, and may be viewed in London, of which a Catalogue is deſigned ſuddenly to be printed. To conclude, the Gentlemen that deſign to be Buyers, are deſired to view the Books at the place of Sale three days before the Time; and are alſo informed, that in few days after this Sale is ended, they ſhall be again entertained, and if poſſible gratified, by the ſelling of the Library of the Reverend and Learned Mr. Harding late of Trinity-College,

By their humble Servant,

Lond. Octob. 7. 1697.

ED. MILLINGTON.

This

This Sale will begin on Monday the 25th of October 1697, at a House adjoining to the North-gate, from 9 in the Morning to 11, and from One to four in the Afternoon, continuing daily till all the Books are ſold.

Conditions of Sale.

I. THat he that bids moſt is the Buyer, and if any Difference ariſe, which the Company cannot decide, the Book or Books ſhall be expoſed to ſale again.

II. That all the Books in this Catalogue, not otherwiſe expreſſed, (for ought we know) are perfect; but if any of them appear to be otherwiſe (before taken away) the Buyer ſhall have his choice of taking or leaving them.

III. That no Perſon is to bid leſs than 6*d* a time under a Pound for Folio's; 6*d* for Quarto's, 4*d* for 8*o*, 12*o*, 24*o*; the firſt bidding left to the pleaſure of the Company.

IV. That the fourth part of the Price of the Book or Books bought, is to be paid by the Buyer at the time of Sale, (if demanded) and that he give in his Chriſtian and Sir-Name, Degree, and of what College or Hall he is of (if a Scholar) and that the remainder of the Money be paid within ſix days after the Sale, at the place of Sale, where the Books ſhall be ready to be delivered to them or their Order.

Any Gentlemen, &c. may be pleaſed to ſend their Commiſſions from London, or elſewhere, directed to the place of Sale, for any Books contained in the Catalogue, and have them faithfully executed by their Servant E. M.
